

Harvest Mouse Macro Workshops are an amazing opportunity to photograph these tiny, challenging but fascinating little creatures in a studio environment at Liberty's Centre near Ringwood. Your day will start with a quick introduction before we start photographing the mice using a variety of props and backgrounds and will last for two and a half hours. As always an experienced photographer will be on hand to guide you and help out with any questions that may arise during the session.

Each session is limited to just 3 photographers so there is plenty of space for all and plenty of time to get your photographs. Sessions last for two and a half hours and cost £55 per person per session.

Morning Sessions run from 10.00AM to 12.30PM

Afternoon Sessions run from 1.30PM to 4.00PM

Your day includes entry into Liberty's Centre so if you wish to stay in the Centre after a morning session, or arrive early for an afternoon session, to have a look round at our Birds Of Prey and Reptiles that reside with us you are more than welcome.

Address And Postcode: Liberty's Owl, Raptor And Reptile Centre, Crow Lane, Ringwood, Hampshire. BH24 3EA

Recommended Camera Equipment: You will need a DSLR camera, Compact System Camera or a high end "bridge" camera that is capable of being set to manual exposure with the ability to control ISO, Aperture and Shutter Speed. We suggest that if you are unfamiliar with the controls you check your camera's instruction manual before your day. For cameras with electronic view finders it would be helpful to be able to turn off "exposure simulation" if possible.

The camera will also need to be able to accept a standard flash "hot-shoe" fitting flash trigger.

Lenses we recommend are either a macro lens of around 100mm focal length or a zoom lens of around 70 – 200 or more focal length.

Some Sony cameras use a non-standard flash hot-shoe fitting that will require you to bring a flash adapter to use our triggers. (Adapters can be found on Amazon and Ebay quite readily).

Cost: Harvest Mouse Macro Workshop days are charged at £55 per person comprising of a non-refundable £15 Deposit at the time of booking with the balance payable on arrival on the day using either cash or card.

Private Days: Private days are available at a cost of £200 per session for up to 4 people (2 is ideal). Week day bookings are also welcome – please contact us with your requirements.
